START A SILVER COLLECTION!

American Collectors have never been given such an opportunity as this to add desirable silver coins to their collections for very low prices, almost bullion value in some cases. If you tire of such a collection, you should be able to dispose of it at a profit. The new Catalogue of Silver and Gold Coins (which I sell for $1.00 prepaid), illustrating and pricing thousands of these, makes the collecting of Silver Coins especially interesting and advantageous to the collector. Look over these bargains and tell me if you have ever been handed such an attractive proposition.

UNITED STATES CENTS OF 1908 AND 1909.

The first issue of any coins is destined to be more or less in demand. The gold coinage of 1907 attracted great attention, and certain varieties of the $10 and $20 pieces bear handsome premiums. Among the younger collectors, and beginners,—indeed, among all classes, the new issues of cents, struck at both the Philadelphia and San Francisco Mints in 1908, 1909 and 1910 have awakened great interest. The Indian head cents of 1908 were not struck at San Francisco until December, and only a limited number were struck before the new year, 1909. A still less number bearing the Indian head were struck at the San Francisco Mint in 1909, the number being under 400,000. Most of these Indian head cents of 1908 and 1909 got out into circulation and were badly scratched and discolored, so the actually uncirculated kind are really very scarce. The number of cents struck during the year 1877 ran into the hundreds of thousands, yet an uncirculated specimen sold for $2.10. This only goes to show, that while over 200,000 cents were coined at the S. Mint of each variety in 1908, and 1909, that these in a few years may become quite rare. The 1909 San Francisco Cent with Lincoln head, with the initials V. D. B. was coined in about equal number to the Indian head of the same year. Several million of the Lincoln cents, dated 1909, of the Philadelphia Mint, bearing the initials, were coined, yet some dealers pay a premium for uncirculated specimens. The absorbing power of the coin collecting public is here illustrated. Collectors who buy these coins to lay away for future use are wise. Few people know that even the Indian head cent of 1909, of the Philadelphia Mint is a little scarce in new condition. The proof cents of 1909, Indian head and Lincoln, with initials, are both rare, and Mr. Elder obtained $2.30 apiece for each variety at a recent sale.

We have laid in a good stock of all varieties, and offer them as follows.—

REMARKABLE RELICS OF REVOLUTIONARY TIMES.

1185—Did you ever see or own, a genuine American Colonial or Continental Bill? These bills were issued prior to 1781 and are very curious in design and denomination, often bearing the coat-of-arms or seals of the issuing colonies or states and the original ink signatures of famous and noted men; on many we see the ominous legend: "To Counterfeit is Death." The Continental Congress promised to redeem these "Continental" but never did. Many denominations of these bills are rare and much in demand. You should not be without one or more. They are well worth the price I ask. Poor specimens, each, 16c; fair, 25c; good, 35c; fine, 45c; Unc.....$ 1.00

THE COLLECTING OF FOREIGN COPPER COINS.

Too few articles have been contributed to the exhaustive subject of foreign copper coins, especially the modern copper coins dating from say 1600 A. D. to the present. No other class of coins is more interesting historically, and only one or two classes of either coins or medals are more noteworthy from the artistic standpoint. Any collector, no difference how modest his means, can afford a representative collection of both countries and types. Notwithstanding the large number of these that have been issued, only a few hundred varieties are actually common. One could not point to a thousand varieties of copper coins without finding some rarities. Those of considerable rarity are unappreciated and sell for far less than their rarity would indicate. We venture to say that any American dealer would have a hard time furnishing a collection of 1200 or 1500 varieties. It is easy enough to get 300 or 400 varieties, but after that they become rather scarce. A collector is able, for a moderate sum, to get a copper coin of countries whose silver or gold coins are of such rarity that few collectors can afford them, or procure them. The variety of sizes, shapes, edges, inscriptions, types, workmanship, etc., are legion, almost innumerable, and for artistic merit they equal, if they do not excel, all modern silver coins. In fact, important collectors like Dr. Martin Burke of this city, prefer copper to either silver or gold, for their excellent color and soft delineation of portraits or heraldic devices. Your cabinet will never be perfectly rounded until you have a representative collection of fine historical or artistic copper coins. We predict an advance in the near future in the prices of these copper coins, which now are moderate in price. Of course we refer to coins in good or fine preservation. Everybody knows how many battered or poor specimens are afloat, but there still seems to be a slight demand for even those.

ISABELLA QUARTERS, COLUMBIAN HALF DOLLARS, LAFAYETTE DOLLARS, ETC.

Isabella Quarter Dollar.

This beautiful quarter dollar was issued in 1893 by the Lady Managers of the Columbian Exposition, Chicago. This is the only United States coin bearing a crowned head! Critics unite in the opinion that it is one of our handsomest coins.

The obverse side of the coin bears a portrait of Queen Isabella. The reverse side bears a kneeling female and the legend "Board of Lady Managers, Columbian Quar. Dol."

As only 40,000 were struck, this quarter-dollar is rapidly becoming rare. The present demand among collectors for this coin probably exceeds that for any United States silver coin. In 1893 the Exposition asked $1.00 for these coins. I offer a limited number, in brilliant mint condition, for but $1.00. Persons who buy this coin may readily obtain from $1 to $2 for it. Order now.

Columbian Half Dollars, World's Fair, 1892, each in new condition, only 85 cents; Circulated ones 75 cents; 1893 ones 75 cents.

Washington-Lafayette Silver Dollars, Etc.

A beautiful silver dollar, an authorized United States coin, struck in 1900 in honor of Lafayette. Bears the heads of Washington and Lafayette, and on the reverse a reproduction of the beautiful equestrian statue of Lafayette in Paris.

Only 40,000 of these dollars were struck! I offer them in fine condition at the original price at which they were issued by the Government, $2.50. Registry fee extra.

The Hoard of Alexandrian Nummi.

While perhaps not intrinsically so valuable, second only to Mr. Elder's great purchase of the Demenhur, Egypt, find of Alexander Tetradrachms, comes his acquisition of a large hoard, numbering perhaps two thousand pieces, in satisfactory condition, of Imperial Alexandrian bronze Nummi (coins) of the Roman Caesars from Hadrian to the Constantines together with a few of the Eastern Emperors Justinian and Anastasius.

EXAMPLES OF THE FIND.

These coins are mostly of very thick fabric, the earlier ones cast, design and all in sand moulds, and later struck upon sand cast flans of extremely hard bronze. Their interest lies partly in the fact that they came from the time and place of the syncretism of the various Oriental doctrines which found expression in the four Gospels and show in their numerous interesting reverse types many of the figures to which the Aegypto-Greeks dwelling under Roman rule sought to blend the ancient Mysteries of the Nile country with the new found faith of the Jewish Messiah. Students of early Christian history and the writings of the "Fathers," so full of the struggles of various Oriental sects to approximate the revelations of the Christian Gospels to their own particular teachings and their successive combatting and overthrow by the Roman center of Ecclesiastical authority, will appreciate the countless religious types which are equally applicable to the old religion of Egypt and the new.

We find perhaps the earliest numismatic references to the advent of the Redeemer on Alexandria Nummi of the Emperor Nero, which show a serpent crowned and erect among spears of Wheat with the legend NEO AGATHDAIMON or "To the new god Genius." Then there is Isis nursing the infant Horus and Serapis, the liberator of the souls in Amenta or Purgatory and many types of gods and goddesses who are at one and the same time figures in the Roman pantheon and recognized as ancient deities of the Egyptians. In due time all these dogmatic conflicts were put an end to by voice of authority but the Alexandrian Nummi remain one of the most interesting series of memorials to primitive Christianity in the world.

GEM, JEWELRY, WEAPON AND CURIO DEPARTMENT.

A Word About Gems.

Gems and Their Cutting.

Probably the most familiar of the many gem cuttings is the "brilliant" faceted diamond cuttings. Another familiar form is the round or oval topped Cabochon cutting, largely used for Opals, Turquoises, etc.

Gems Within the Reach of All.

Gems are usually high in price, not only because they are scarce, but on account of the many profits which the retail purchaser has to pay.

I make a specialty of buying gems of all kinds and selling them at retail at prices which are far below those usually paid by jewelers at wholesale. I guarantee to save you 40 to 1,000 per cent. Is this point worthy of your consideration?

I can do this because I import the gems direct, or buy at auction, and also personally select stones from the very large wholesale lots.

All gems sold by me are absolutely guaranteed genuine, and money will be promptly refunded for unsatisfactory goods.

Do you know the name of your birth-stone? It has become popular to have a birth-stone. Here is a list of them: January, Garnet; February, Amethyst; March, Blood-stone; April, Diamond; May, Emerald; June, Pearl; July, Ruby, August, Sardonyx; September, Sapphire; October, Opal; November, Topaz; December, Turquoise. The above semi-precious stones I can furnish, perfectly cut, at from 25c each and upward; the precious ones at from $1.50 each.

Please remember, I handle no imitation stones of any kind.

Opal, Garnets, Amethysts, Topaz, Etc.

I quote here a variety of precious stones, to which I call your special attention, on account of the exceptional value I can guarantee you in every case. Having unusual cutting facilities and being in a position to obtain the raw material at first hands, tells the reason why. I am anxious for a trial order because I know you will be pleased. Money refunded, if that is not the case. Semi-precious stones are worn at present by the best dressed people.

Garnets.

An Indian gem with the fire and brilliancy of an oriental Ruby; having a peculiar, rich Ruby glow that no others possess. They are Diamond-cut and are beautiful for Rings, Stick-pins—in fact, any kind of jewelry.

Size $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ carat	Each \$.75
Size $\frac{3}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ carat.....	Each 1.00
Size $\frac{5}{8}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ carat	Each 1.25
Size $\frac{7}{8}$ to 1 carat	Each 1.50
Size $1\frac{1}{2}$ carat	Each 1.50 to 2.00
Size 2 carat	Each 1.50 to 2.00
Extra quality at 25 per cent. higher prices.

Amethyst and Golden Topaz.

The color of the Amethyst is a beautiful clear purple or bluish violet. All of the stones are absolutely perfect, finely cut gems, of the best color only.

The Golden Topaz range in color from a beautiful light golden to an exquisite sunglow shade. Both the Amethysts and Topaz are Diamond-cut gems, showing brilliant fire. (Round or oval shapes in stock).

Size $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{3}{8}$ carat	Each \$.50
Size $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ carat	Each 1.00
Size $\frac{7}{8}$ to $1\frac{1}{4}$ carat	Each 1.50
Size $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 carat	Each 1.50
Larger sizes—from 3 to 20 carats—at 60 cents per carat.

Australian Opals.

They are well known for their perfection and beautiful tints. The colors vary from transparent blue to the most beautiful combination of red, green and yellow. I quote only good, perfect gems that are sure to please. I am a judge of this stone, and select it personally.

Good Stones, good color	Per Carat $ 2.50
Better Stones, good color and full of fire	Per Carat 3.00
Fine Stones, selected for fine color and fire....	Per carat $4.00 to 5.00
Finest Stones, according to color and fire.....	Per carat $7.00 to 10.00

Black Opals.

The latest Opal is the Australian and Hungarian Black Opal, these come with a dark greenish, purplish and reddish fire, some of them very gorgeous in colorings. Prices for oval or round stones from 75c to $10 per carat. A very good stone for about $2.00 per carat. A carat or 1½ carats makes a very good size for a scarf pin or ring.

Matrix and Gem Turquoise.

Gem Turquoise, fine color	Per carat $ 2.00
Matrix Turquoise, fair grade	Per carat .40
Matrix Turquoise, good color	Per carat .50
Matrix Turquoise, best quality	Per carat 1.00
Unassorted Matrix stones, cut to 1 K., 10 for	1.20

The New Ruby.

Within the last five years it has been discovered in France that by a scientific process the particles of the real ruby can be fused under a great heat into a solid mass, as hard as the solid ruby. After this is done the stone is cut as ordinarily into any shape desired, the result being a stone as brilliant and hard as the real pigeon blood ruby. In this you have for a few dollars as durable a stone as would cost for the Ruby $75.

Prices: Round or Oval stones, 1 carat each	$ 2.50
Round or Oval stones, 2 Karats each	4.50
Round or Oval stones, 3 Karats each	6.50

The New Reconstructed Sapphire.

In the same way that the ruby has been fused, as described above, the particles of the Brilliant Blue Sapphire have been fused, hardened and cut, so that we are able to furnish a karat sapphire as brilliant and durable as one costing $75 for only $4.00.

These stones are absolutely beautiful and refined, and when surrounded by small diamonds make the most effective jewelry mountings in existence.

Round or oval, 1 karat, more valuable than the above ruby	$ 3.00
Round or oval, 2 Karats, faceted, each	6.00
Round or oval White Sapphires, fused or cut, brilliant as a diamond, rare, each per karat	4.50
Alexandrite, round faceted, 1 Karat, a brownish green stone, which at night turns to a brilliant purple, very rare, imported	5.00

Mountings.

If you have any jewelry or rings which have broken sets or if you desire to get stones for such I will furnish the stones and mount them at low prices. Scarf-pins in gold, $1.50 up; rings, $2.50 up.

Estimates of cost for mounting stones in various settings will be furnished on application.

To The Wise.

It will cost you far less to buy genuine gems through me than to buy imitations through some jewelers. You can buy the finest cut gems through me and have them set by a jeweler, or by myself, in that way saving 50 to 1000 per cent. and getting better jewelry.

Money used for the purchase of good gems is not spent—it is invested. On gems bought at my prices you can often realize a profit should you ever wish to part with them.

So low are my prices, that gems usually purchased for jewelry only, can be secured through me for gem and mineral collections.

There is nothing more beautiful, interesting and instructive than a collection of brilliant, sparkling gems.

No need to pay two or three profits for gems bought through jewelers. I can sell them to you direct at prices which place nature's fairest gems within your reach.

Gems sent on approval to any person furnishing good references. I carry 20,000 gems in stock.
